

Or Hadash: A Reconstructionist Congregation
190 Camp Hill Road
Ft. Washington, PA 19034
215-283-0276 • www.orhadash.com

April 2017

A meaningful gift for someone is to donate a prayer book. It can be a lasting tribute in someone's memory. It can commemorate someone's birthday or anniversary. It can be in honor of a teacher. It could be a thank you for someone who did something special for you. It is what to send when you have no clue for a Wedding, Engagement, Bar or Bat Mitzvah gift.

Or Hadash welcomes your donation(s) of:

$36 for SHABBAT VEHAGIM: The Sabbath and Festivals – our regular Shabbat prayer book

$54 for MAHZOR LEYAMIM NORA'IM – our High Holy Day prayer book

$30 for SIDDUR KOL HA'NOAR – our Siddur for Children

$72 for ETZ HAYIM – our Chumash, Torah & Commentary “big Red Book”

A letter notifying the recipient of your gift will be sent, and a book plate is placed in the book.

Name _____

Address _____

I/We would like to donate ___ Shabbat Prayer books ($36@)

I/We would like to donate ___ High Holiday Prayer books ($54@)

I/We would like to donate ___ Siddur Kol Ha'noar children's prayer book ($30@)

I/We would like to donate ___ Etz Hayim books ($72@)

Bookplate should read: This book donated to Or Hadash

____ in memory of or ____ in honor of

Name _____

Occasion _____

By _____