

2017 DICKSTEIN SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM

with

DEBORAH STRAUSS AND CANTOR JEFF WARSCHAUER THE KLEZMER DUO

Friday, February 24 at 7:30 PM — Klezmer Music: From Old World to New

After enlivening our service with their music, Deborah and Cantor Jeff will explore the trajectory of klezmer music from its roots in late 19th and early 20th century Eastern Europe to its unique musical and cultural context in today's world in this lecture and musical demonstration. Service preceded by dinner at 6:30 dinner reception; no charge but RSVP is required.

Saturday, February 25 at 9:00 AM — Yiddish and Hebrew Songs of Spring

This Shabbat is Shabbat Shekalim, one of the special Shabbatot leading up to Passover and the arrival of spring. This Shabbat we also announce the new month – Adar – the month of Purim! Deborah and Cantor Jeff will present Yiddish and Hebrew music, folklore and liturgy related to this special time of year. RSVP for bagels and coffee provided at no charge.

Saturday, February 25 at 7:00 PM — Klezmer Celebration!

We close out our Scholar in Residence weekend with a joyous klezmer concert with dessert and dancing, featuring the Klezmer Duo and our own New Klezmaniax. A night not to be missed!

Husband-wife team Deborah Strauss (violin, accordion, vocals, dance) and Cantor Jeff Warschauer (guitar, mandolin, vocals) have toured internationally for more than 25 years as the Klezmer Duo. They were long-time members of the Klezmer Conservatory Band and have appeared with artists such as Itzhak Perlman and Theodore Bikel. Deborah is a member of the inter-continental klezmer group Voices of Ashkenaz and Cantor Jeff is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary's cantorial program and on the faculty of Columbia University.

RSVP: 215-283-0276 or office@orhadash.com

THIS PROGRAM IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE COMMUNITY

Or Hadash: A Reconstructionist Congregation • 190 Camp Hill Road • Ft. Washington, PA 19034