

Security Information & Needs of People with Disabilities

Synagogue security tips often do not include important info about the needs of people with disabilities, who may need specific forms of emergency preparedness in situations such as evacuations in response to bomb threats.

One valuable recent article about this can be found at:

<http://jewishweek.timesofisrael.com/bomb-threats-anxiety-people-with-disabilities/>

Also, you may want to add the New York Jewish Week's blog on disability awareness and Jewish communal life, called "The New Normal." It's at:

<http://jewishweek.timesofisrael.com/topic/the-new-normal/>

Thanks to Gabrielle Kaplan-Mayer who directs the Whole Community Inclusion initiative at Jewish Learning Ventures here in the Philly area. You may want to check out their resources at <http://jewishlearningventure.org/empoweringinstitutions/wci/>.