

Wouldn't it be great to have

SHABBAT IN THE PARK

When? SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Where? ROBBINS PARK
(directions below)

What? An opportunity to experience nature as we gather together to celebrate Shabbat

Who? Congregants of all ages!

- 8:45 am - Bagel Breakfast
- 9:00 am - TWO Torah Studies, one with Rabbi Alanna & another with Morah Barbara (for students)
- 10:00 am - Rabbi Alanna will lead a family friendly Shabbat morning service for everyone
- 11:45 am - Oneg

Please NOTE: Seating is on benches.
If you would prefer a chair, please bring one!

Shabbat in the Park is held weather permitting.
If the weather does not cooperate, everything will be held at OH,
please check the website Saturday morning.

Directions to Robbins Park (NO services or Torah study will be held at Or Hadash unless this event is cancelled)

Route 309 north to Susquehanna Rd./Butler Pike exit
Left at the end of the exit ramp onto Susquehanna
Right at first light onto Butler Pike
Cross back under Route 309 and turn left into the Robbins Park parking lot (just before the light for Meeting-house Road, opposite the Temple Ambler parking lot)
The pavilion will be on your right, down a short path, as you pull into the parking lot (park on your left, so the path will be on the opposite side of the parking lot, behind you)
You can download a map of the park from the following link: http://www.udsd.org/uploaded/documents/Jason T/Katie Braun/Robbins Park ... - the entrance to the park is on the bottom of the map, and the pavilion is just beyond the entrance to the right

Or Hadash: A Reconstructionist Congregation
190 Camp Hill Road, Ft. Washington, PA 19034
215-283-0276 www.orphadash.com