

Adult Education Activities

Spring 2023

MAR 10

A Reason for Hope

Bob and Sandy Lieberman will give a Friday night talk during the Shabbat service sharing their experience on a dual-narrative tour of Israel & the West Bank this past fall with Combatants for Peace.

Friday, 7:00pm

MAR
20

"Zoom" into Antiracism!

This study session on Social Identities & Systems of Oppression will be facilitated by members of our Antiracist Taskforce, and may be attended either as a stand-alone class, or in preparation for the trip to the NMAAHC in Washington, DC on March 24.

RSVP for the Zoom link: <http://tiny.cc/OHARTF>

Monday, 7:30pm

MAR
26

Trip to National Museum of African American History & Culture

This daylong trip will include the opportunity to tour the core exhibit, have lunch at the museum, and visit the special exhibitions/

RSVP to the office or Alisa Belzer ($30/person)

Sunday, 8:30am-8:00pm

Continues...

BEGINNING
APR
19

The "Proverbial" Adult Ed Course

Join Rabbi Alanna on Wednesday afternoons between Passover and Shavuot for a 6-session journey through Jewish Wisdom Literature! The first 3 weeks will focus on the Book of Proverbs, and the second 3 weeks on Pirkei Avot (Ethics of our Ancestors).

RSVP link will open in late March

Wednesdays at 2:00pm

APR
28-29

SIR 2023 – Rabbi Fred Dobb!

Join us for a weekend of study and connection centering on environmental justice and climate activism with Rabbi Fred Schirlinder Dobb, Chair of the Coalition on the Environment and Jewish Life. We are thrilled to welcome Rabbi Fred as this year's Scholar-in-Residence.

RSVPs will open in April, for pieces that require

All Shabbat Long!

MAY 25

Shavuot Night of Study

Calling ALL learners and teachers! On Erev Shavuot (our celebration of receiving Torah), we gather to learn with and from one another, enjoy delicious dairy delicacies and conclude our evening with the chanting of the 10 Commandments under the stars!

Contact Manny Rosenberg to volunteer to teach

Thursday, 7:30–10:30 pm

Also of Interest...

Evening Torah Study

(7:30pm - 2nd & 4th Mondays)

A lay-led enrichment program, where we proceed in-depth, verse by verse. Completely different style from Shabbat mornings! A knowledge of Hebrew is helpful, but not necessary.

Contact Jeff Chebot & Marty Jacobs

Learn to Read Hebrew

(Sundays, time TBD)

We are forming a beginning Hebrew class - truly, starting from "alef"!

Contact Manny Rosenberg

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Manny Rosenberg (manor72@verizon.net)
www.orhadash.com